Coaches of ALL levels are invited to come out to this distinctly Delaware Clinic. Learn successful techniques, drills and strategies and much more from Delaware's college coaches and other clinicians, which will be sure to help your players and your team this spring and summer! Whether you coach high school, American Legion, Babe Ruth, Little League, Cal Ripken League, CYM or other youth leagues, be sure to come out. You will learn techniques, skills and coaching strategies that will help players of all ages.

Parents are invited to attend! YOU are critical to your child's success in baseball. Many of you are involved in all aspects of your child's baseball experience. Presentations will be helpful to you!

Special notice to parents of high school players: Dave Beccaria of Haverford College will talk about the baseball recruiting process for high school players. Why spend thousands on "recruiting services"? Hear about the process from college coaches!

Learn more about the secrets of success in Little League ball, as well!

[Note: Due to NCAA and DIAA regulations, high school players may not attend!]
