

Jan. 2, 2008
For Immediate Release

Romanczuk Added To Jan. 12 Clinic Line Up

Mark Romanczuk has been added to the line up for the 2nd Annual Delaware Baseball Clinic to be held, Saturday, January 12 at Saint Mark's High School in Wilmington. Romanczuk, a left-handed pitcher, was the Gatorade Player of the Year at Saint Mark's High School and pitched in the CWS Championship game while at Stanford University. He is in the Arizona Diamondback organization, playing last year for the South Bend Silver Hawks. The Delaware Baseball Clinic is for coaches of all levels and for parents. The clinic boasts an impressive line up of speakers and vendors. For more information and registration materials, please go to: www.lemonbaseball.com or call 302-998-0267.